Now Publishers Foundations and Trends eBooks Library— new AI collection now available!

These high-quality eBook titles provide a quick, trustworthy guide for graduate students, corporate engineers, and researchers looking for a high-level introduction to new subject areas. The Technology Collection includes more than 740 titles in computer science, energy, and engineering, and the new AI Collection is a separate package that offers new 2025 titles covering topics in AI and data science.

Foundations and Trends eBooks Library delivers key benefits:

- Provides short reviews and tutorials of approximately 150 pages in monograph form on important and timely topics
- Delivers information about the latest on emerging technologies, authored by leaders in the field
- Helps research departments and design teams understand and adopt new technologies faster
- Four collection options available
 - Technology Collection includes ALL content from the Computer Science and Engineering/Energy Collections
 - Computer Science Collection covers databases, privacy and security, programming languages, and more
 - Engineering/Energy Collection covers networking, signal processing, optics and photonics, and more
 - AI Collection covers robotics, machine learning, computer graphics, optimization, and more NEW!

A sampling of some recent and popular titles:

- Automated Deep Learning: Neural Architecture Search Is Not the End
- LMI-Based Robustness Analysis in Uncertain Systems
- Modern Techniques for Querying Graph-structured Databases
